The following resolution on the death of Miss M. Anna Tabell was read and approved.

Whereas, the trustees of Bousfield Public Library, located in Bousfield Massachusetts, deeply regret to report the passing of Miss Mary Anna Tabell, librarian for the past thirty-five years.

Miss Tabell

Miss Tabell has always been a tireless worker in library affairs and did much to make the present building and physical equipment a reality. Her historical data connected with the history of Bousfield could be verified at almost any time by her extensive memory. A devoted patron to the cause of all things which go to make our lives a better place in which to live.

We realize that Miss Tabell leaves a niche in the institution of our community of life that will be impossible to fill, therefore be it resolved!

Whereas - Miss Mary Anna Tabell gave unstintingly of her time and energy to library affairs in the town of Bousfield in

Moved that Miss Jones of the State Library Commission be invited to come in the near future. carried Moved that Mrs Lawrence and Mrs Lincoln constitute a committee to procure magazines. carried.

Bills read and approved.

A true copy of the Bay Path Library Club resolutions.

In the passing of Miss M. Anna Tarbell, the Bay Path Library Club has lost a faithful member and a conscientious officer. Miss Tarbell was a charter member and for twelve years served as president of the Club following which term she was made Honorary Vice-President.

Her interest in local history led to the suggestion which gave the Club its name.

Her love for books and for the welfare of her fellow townsmen enabled her to make her library the center for community life.

Her ideal characteristics led to her selection to be custodian of the "Town Room" which contained the library of the Massachusetts Civic League in Boston.

Mindful of our long association with Miss Tarbell and our deep appreciation of her personality as shown in a lifetime of gentle, wise, kind and modest acts the Bay Path Library Club would record upon their minutes their sorrow at the loss of this Loaned member and desk that a copy of this statement be forwarded to the family and to the Trustees of the Brimfield Public Library.

Resolutions

Relating to the Daniel L. Rice Memorial Gift

Whereas, The Brimfield Public Library has recently received three hundred and fifty (350) volumes donated from the publications of the Yale University Press; and

Whereas, this gift has been made by the Yale University Press in memory of Daniel L. Rice of the class of 1871, Yale College;

Whereas, this Library has never received as a gift a more carefully selected collection of valuable publications with every title of high interest and value; therefore be it

Resolved by the Board of Trustees of the Brimfield Public School Library, that we express our deep appreciation of this generous gift and evidence of careful selection of the value of the collection and of the high quality of the memorial as a whole; and

Resolved, that the Board of Trustees hereby give expression of its gratitude to the donors of this memorial gift,

Resolved, that this memorial collection be placed on view in the reading room of the Brimfield Public Library and that special display racks be built for this purpose.

Let a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to Yale University with the request that this expression of gratitude and appreciation be forwarded to the donors and have made a suitable memorial to a former citizen of this town.

This is to certify that the above is a true copy of resolutions unanimously adopted by the Board of Trustees of the Brimfield (Mass.) Public Library on Feb. 6, 1937.

Dear Librarian :

Wellesley College has found it possible to make a gift of our 1942 Record Number of the Wellesley College Bulletin to certain important libraries.

We are particularly glad to have this opportunity because we know how difficult it is to find biographies of living people in the more technical volumes or reference books that are generally available to supply information about famous people.

We trust you will find this volume of value. We are sending it under separate cover.

Cordially yours,

Miss Margaret E. Dunsmore, Librarian
Brimfield Library
Brimfield, Massachusetts

Dear Miss Dunsmore:

I take pleasure in advising you that the Yale University Press is today forwarding to you twenty-five of its recent publications as listed on the enclosed memorandum, and as a further gift in each case made through Yale University in memory of Orville J. Bliss, of the Class of 1871, Yale College.

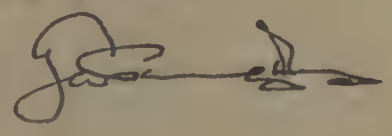
With this letter I am enclosing a sufficient number of bookplates similar to those which were inserted by you several years ago in other publications of the Yale University Press given to the Brimfield Library in memory of this graduate of Yale: so that you may place one of these in each of the volumes now being forwarded to you.

It is our hope, although it is not a condition of the gift, that the additional volumes now sent to the Brimfield Library may be shown as a special collection given in memory of Orville J. Bliss, for at least a brief period prior to their being catalogued and perhaps placed in different sections of the Library under various classifications. It would not, however, be desirable from the standpoint of the Library's administration to have the volumes thus kept together as a special collection indefinitely: and since those who have joined in making this gift to the Brimfield Library are eager to make it of the greatest possible service to this, they would suggest that the volumes ultimately be distributed among the collections of the Library under such classifications as may encourage the greatest possible use being made of them.

Naturally I shall appreciate it if you will in due course send to me for the records of the University, copies or clippings of any items which may be published in the bulletin of the Brimfield Library or in the newspaper of Brimfield in regard to the gift of the additional volumes in memory of Orville J. Bliss, and copy of any Minute and Resolution which the Trustees of the Brimfield Library may adopt in regard to this.

In the hope that the volumes may reach you safely and promptly and that they may prove of enduring service to the community in which Mr. Bliss was interested, believe me

Sincerely yours,



GPD:G
